

Dr Ali Riza Kural , graduated from Istanbul University School of Medicine in 1974. He was specialized in Urology at Cerrahpasa School of Medicine, Istanbul University. His main interests are Endourology and Urooncology. Professor Kural worked in Edinburgh Western General Hospital between March and October 1985 as an honorary registrar. Then, he initiated one of the first “Endoscopic urinary stone treatment program including ureteroscopic and percutaneous nephrolithotomy” in 1986 and the first “Laparoscopic urological oncology program” in 2002, in Turkey. He was the first built “Robotic Urology Programme” in the region in 2005 and completed more than 1800 robotic procedures succesfully. He served as a Board member of European Robotic Urological Society between 2010 and 2015. Dr Kural is currently President of Endourological Society. He is also an active member of Board of Directors of Endourological Society. He arranged many local and international scientific meetings, training courses successfully including 30th World Congress of Endourology and SWL, which was held in Istanbul, Turkey in 2012 with 2.672 participants. He was Honorary Chair of Urology during 22nd SLS meeting in Reston/Virginia in 2013. Dr Kural is the chairman of the Minimally Invasive and Robotic Urology section in Acibadem University, Maslak Hospital currently.